

ANNOUNCEMENT OF COOPERATION AND BUSINESS PARTNERSHIP

No: iCCH.0525.013
Date: 05 May, 2025
Geneva, Switzerland

To: Who is interested in BOLAND PARVAZAN RADMAN (BPR) Co., Ltd. products

iCsquared GmbH announces BOLAND PARVAZAN RADMAN Co., Ltd. (BPR), the manufacturer of organic fertilizers with registered brand of PILMAN as its business partner in the markets which iCsquared GmbH, its subsidiary iCsquared GmbH Azerbaijan and its JV ABAK AGRO ALLIANCE MMC (ABAK AGRO) operate.

This partnership is based on mutual business interests and shared goals for expanding business opportunities and strengthening professional relationships.

We are committed to establishing valuable and long-lasting partnerships with brands that prioritize innovation, quality, support organic agriculture and sustainable growth.

BPR Co., with its professional approach and dedication to providing high-quality products, holds a strong position in many markets and this collaboration reflects the values we share. Organic fertilizers manufactured by BPR Co., are very important to feed soil with micro-organisms, which are very beneficial for plants, while improving soil structure.

We believe that this partnership will serve as a foundation for further cooperation, knowledge exchange, and new business opportunities in the markets we operate. Through the combined expertise and capabilities of both companies, this collaboration will contribute positively to the growth and credibility of both parties.
